MISSION STATEMENT

We at Montessori Children's Center strive to adhere to the philosophy of Dr. Maria Montessori. We believe that every child should have the opportunity to reach their full potential and be treated with kindness and respect in his or her environment. We are dedicated to the preparation of the child for a life of academic achievement by providing a quality, personalized learning experience in a nurturing atmosphere. By valuing the spirituality and uniqueness of each individual and with gentle direction and guidance, we believe each child will progress with confidence.

Our infant and toddler fees are based on a year round schedule, beginning the Tuesday after Labor Day and ending the third or fourth week of August.

The preschool, kindergarten and elementary fees are based on a nine month school year, beginning the Tuesday after Labor Day and ending in mid-June.

We do offer an excellent summer program filled with day camps and workshops. Summer brochures are available in early March.

- "The greatest sign of success for a teacher...is to be able to say, "The children are now working as if I did not exist."
- Maria Montessori

Registration fees:

New students - $300.00

Returning students before April 1st. - $250.00/after April 1st. - $300.00

Infant and/or Toddler - $100.00

$200.00 of the new or returning student's application fees are applied to the annual tuition.

All registration fees, including first $200.00, are non-refundable and payable when submitting application for admission.

Second and/or additional children from the same family receive a 10% discount off tuition. The discount will be taken from the lowest tuition received. Due to staffing requirements, there are no discounts for the infant or toddler program.

All classes are Monday through Friday.
